MARK FERGUSON ADMIRAL UNITED STATES NAVY (RETIRED)

Former Commander, U.S. Naval Forces, Europe and Commander, Joint Force Command Naples

Mark Ferguson is employed as a Senior Fellow for the National Defense University in support of the Pinnacle, Capstone, and Keystone programs.

Admiral Ferguson culminated his 38 years of active-duty military service as Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Europe and Africa, serving concurrently as Commander, NATO Joint Force Command Naples, Italy. During a period of dynamic change, he renewed a focus on high-end war fighting in Europe. The forward deployment of four Aegis destroyers to Rota, Spain, the commissioning of the shore-based Aegis ballistic missile defense site in Romania, and the first Allied ballistic missile defense live-fire test in Europe were completed during his tenure. As the operational commander of 4,800 Allied troops deployed to Kosovo and the NATO mission in Bosnia-Herzegovina, he directed NATO operational missions in the Balkans while working closely with the European Union.

Admiral Ferguson's US command encompassed the SIXTH Fleet, with operational responsibilities for the eastern Atlantic and the waters surrounding Europe and Africa. His focus on the security challenges in Africa required close cooperation with European, African, and South American partners to disrupt terrorist networks, deter illicit trafficking, and counter piracy and maritime crime. He was also responsible for five naval bases and US naval personnel stationed throughout Europe and Africa.

As Vice Chief of Naval Operations, he directed the actions of the Navy staff and served as a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Requirements Oversight Council and Deputy Advisory Working Group. During a period of fiscal challenge, he led development of Navy actions to meet the requirements of the Budget Control Act and address the potential impacts of sequestration. He led the organization, training and equipping of more than 680,000 active, reserve, and civilian personnel and provided oversight of the Navy's $140 billion annual budget.

As Chief of Naval Personnel, Admiral Ferguson was responsible for recruiting, retention, and the training of 320,000 naval personnel. He oversaw the force management policies and education programs for the US Navy with an annual budget over $30 billion.

Over his career as a nuclear-trained surface warfare officer, Admiral Ferguson operated in both the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets, serving on cruisers, destroyers, and aircraft carriers. He commanded an Aegis-class destroyer as well as a destroyer squadron. He also served as a special assistant to the Supreme Allied Commander Europe during Operation ALLIED FORCE, the NATO air campaign to end hostilities in Kosovo.

Admiral Ferguson holds a Bachelor of Science in Systems Engineering from the United States Naval Academy and a Master of Science in Computer Science from the Naval Postgraduate School. He also graduated from the Air Command and Staff College. He completed a National Security Fellowship at the Harvard Kennedy School and Leadership at the Peak at the Center for Creative Leadership in Colorado Springs. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees at the Center for Naval Analyses.

Gerard "Gerry" M. Mauer, Jr. Director Capstone, Keystone, Pinnacle

Rear Admiral Mauer retired from the Navy in March 2008 after over 31 years of service, which included extensive experience in fleet operations, resource management, technical innovation, Joint Professional Military Education (JPME), interagency coordination, and leading organizational change in NATO and joint commands.

From 2008 to 2011, RADM Mauer was a Group Vice President for Sabre Systems Inc. He was responsible for developing then implementing the corporate strategic plan and managing the Southeast Region's profit and loss operations, its contracts, corporate business development, human resources programs, and Capability Maturity Model Integration (CMMI) level III attainment. After leaving Sabre Systems, RADM Mauer had positions as an Associate with Burdeshaw Associates, as a Senior Analyst for Wikistrat, as a Board member and Board Tresurer for the Navy Safe Harbor Foundation, and as a representative and the national Co-Chair for the US Global Leadership Coalition's Veterans for Smart Power.

Admiral Mauer's last position in the Navy was from 2006 to 2008, when he served as the Commandant, Industrial College of the Armed Forces (ICAF). He was responsible for executing the congressionally mandated and accredited master's degree senior Professional Military Education curriculum. As a university leader, he directly supported the direction of the National Defense University and was a key member in the development of the University's strategic plan.

From 2003 to 2006, he served as the NATO Allied Command Transformation's Director, Joint Experimentation, Exercises, and Assessment, where he developed and implemented NATO's largest Concept Development and Experimentation program. The scope included creating NATO's transformation strategic vision and aligning the vision with its concepts and requirements. As a result of his initiatives, NATO rapidly implemented new processes, policies, and systems in support of its forces in Afghanistan and Iraq as well new capabilities to support its political and military infrastructure in NATO headquarters.

From 2001 to 2003, he was the Deputy, Directorate for Information Operations (J39/DDIO), Joint Staff Director of Operations (J-3) where he was responsible for direct coordination with the Office of the Secretary of Defense staff, Combatant Commands, and interagency organizations in their global information operations. In this capacity, his responsibilities also included supervision and operational coordination of the Joint Staff's Special Technical Operations information system and its programs.

Admiral Mauer graduated from Villanova University and the Naval Postgraduate School. He was a Naval Aviator who commanded Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadrons SEVEN (HS-7) and TEN (HS-10) in addition to assignment as the Commanding Officer of USS NASSAU (LHA 4). He has vast experience at sea with deployments to the Atlantic Ocean, Mediterranean Sea, and Arabian Gulf. Ashore assignments included: Naval Postgraduate School student, Assistant Program Manager for the Naval Air Systems Command SH-60F/H helicopter program (PMA 266), and Training Officer and Instructor Pilot in Helicopter Antisubmarine Squadron ONE (HS-1). He started with Capstone in August of 2016.

Lance Graham - Warrant Officer Diver

Warrant Officer Diver Lance Graham enlisted into the Royal New Zealand Navy in 1989 as a Radio Operator, serving on three warships over several years. The highlight during this period was successful completion of the Defence Diver Course in 1992.

WODR Graham posted to the diving tender HMNZS Manawanui in 1996. An operational tour followed under the auspices of the United Nations Special Commission (UNSCOM) at the Baghdad Monitoring and Verification Centre, IRAQ.

In 1998 WODR Graham successfully passed the Leading Diver Course and transferred into the Operational Diving Team. A four month deployment with the Royal Navy in 1999 saw him based in Portsmouth working with Fleet Diving Unit One (Maritime Counter Terrorism) and Fleet Diving Unit Two (World Operations Team).

WODR Graham deployed operationally in 2001 to East Timor to effect underwater security in support of East Timorese independence. In 2002 WODR Graham was awarded Sailor of the Quarter and in 2003 he successfully qualified as a Petty Officer Diver, attaining DUX for both the professional and command components. WODR Graham was awarded RNZN Petty Officer DUX of the year for 2003.

In 2004 WODR Graham posted to HMNZS Te Mana, deploying to the Arabian Gulf as an element of Operation Enduring Freedom. WODR Graham posted to the Naval School of Explosive Ordnance Disposal (NAVSCOLEOD) Eglin Air Force Base, Florida in 2006, and qualified as a NATO Explosive Ordnance Technician. On graduation he was awarded honour student for the Underwater Phase. On his return WODR Graham promoted to Chief Petty Officer and posted to the newly formed Joint Service EOD School where he was a founding instructor. In 2007 WODR Graham deployed operationally to Southern Lebanon as an EOD Team Leader under the UN Mine Action Co-ordination Centre (UNMACC) mandate.

WODR GRAHAM returned to the Operational Diving Team (ODT) in 2008 where he planned, executed and led all domestic, international and multi-agency exercises and operations. This included assistance to the Tongan Government after the sinking of Princess Ashika in 2009, and post tsunami support during Pacific Partnership 2011. That same year WODR GRAHAM received a Maritime Component Commander Commendation for his outstanding contribution to the RNZN.

WODR GRAHAM was promoted to his current rank in 2010 and posted into an executive role where he was pivotal in developing multi-agency and coalition partnerships. In 2011 WODR GRAHAM posted to the RNZN Diving School where he assumed the role of Head of the Diving Trade.

In 2014 WODR GRAHAM successfully completed the NZDF Joint Warrant Officer Advanced Course achieving excellent results. In 2015 WODR GRAHAM posted to the Leadership Development Group as Directing Staff for the Recruit Training Squadron.

In August 2016 WODR Graham posted into the role of Command Warrant Officer (CWO) for Headquarters Deployable Joint Interagency Task Force (HQDJIATF). During October 2016 WODR Graham was selected to represent the NZDF as a facilitator on the NATO Intermediate Leadership Course in a Multicultural Environment Lucerne, Switzerland.

WODR Graham deployed operationally with HQDJIATF on 14 November 2016 in response to the Kaikoura earthquake in New Zealand. In October and November 2017 he deployed on Exercise Southern Katipo as deputy of the Commanders Advisory Group (CAG). During Exercise Tropic Major held May 2018 in VANUATU, he planned and executed all KLE, led the CAG throughout and undertook Gender Advisory duties to support the Commander.

In Dec 2018 WO GRAHAM posted to US INDOPACOM as the Foreign Exchange Officer with the Global Peacekeeping Operations Initiative (GPOI) and the J00SEL.

WO GRAHAM is married to Stacy Craigie and is the proud father of Maia Shakti (17), Eve Aroha (7) and Indie Ambar (3).

FIELD ARMY COMMAND SERJEANT MAJOR WO1 (FD ARMY SM) G H PATON

WO1 Paton was born in Cornwall, England and joined the British Army in late 1997 as a Light Infantryman. He served in Belfast, Northern Ireland on Operation Banner with 2nd Bn The Light Infantry in the Anti-Tank Pl until March 1999 when the Bn relocated to Salisbury, England. In the summer of 1999, WO1 Paton was promoted to Lance Corporal and in late in 2000, he was deployed to Pristina, Kosovo for six months where he was a MILAN detachment 2IC. In 2001 WO1 Paton attended the MILAN Detachment Commanders course and then deployed in the summer to Freetown, Sierra Leone as a Section Commander. Early 2002 the Bn moved to Dhekelia in Cyprus. During this period WO1 Paton deployed to Basrah, Iraq in 2003 as a Section Commander, the Falkland Islands as a Section Commander in 2004, and then to Baghdad, Iraq as a Platoon Serjeant in 2006. WO1 Paton also completed both the Section Commanders Battle Course, the Platoon Serjeants Battle Course and also attended the Infantry Training Centre as a Corporal and as a Platoon Serjeant.

In 2007 WO1 Paton was posted to RMAS and spent two years as a Colour Serjeant Instructor growing the future generation of Army Officers. In the Summer of 2009, WO1 Paton moved to 3 Rifles and deployed to Sangin, Afghanistan as a Platoon Commander. On return, he took up the role of Company Quarter Master Serjeant, deployed to Kenya and then promoted to Warrant Officer Class 2 and given C Company 3 Rifles. The primary focus was to train the Company for Operation Herrick 16, which would see the Company deploy to Nad–e-Ali, Afghanistan as an Operations/Ground Holding Company in the summer of 2012. On return, he was posted to RMAS as a Company Serjeant Major and remained there until Mar 2015 when he returned to 3 Rifles as the Regimental Serjeant Major (RSM). In 2016 the Army selected WO1 Paton to be the first British student since 1989 to attend the 10 month residential Sergeants Major Course at the United States of America Sergeants Major Academy (USASMA) in Fort Bliss, Texas.

On return from USASMA, WO1 Paton was commissioned and selected to be the first Comd SM for the Field Army, based in Andover.

During his 18 years of Infantry experience, WO1 Paton has deployed in every rank, attended both the Infantry Training Centre and the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst as an instructor and attended all mainstream Infantry career courses successfully. Along with his operational service medals, he has received medals for Long Service and Good Conduct and Accumulated Service.

WO1 Paton is married to Jessica his wife of 17 years, and they have a ten-year-old Son Elijah Boase.
